Dear friends

In my previous newsletter, I had mentioned that the time between June 21st to July 13th was a time where there could be floods, earthquakes and terrorist attacks in India. I had said that the west coast and the southwest coast of India was prone to these dangers. Well, there was some flood situation in the city of Bombay, and on July 11th, terrorists exploded 8 bombs in the Bombay trains, where hundreds died and many hundreds were injured.

Tomorrow, Sun moves into Cancer as per the Hindu calendar, and it will join Saturn there for the next month. Mars moves into Leo today. This Sun-Saturn conjunction with Mercury can cause some other dangers. The south coast of America could be prone to some dangers, as mentioned in my earlier newsletters. The Indian government could be at a difficult situation with its neighbours. President George Bush could be experiencing some dangers too.

As the Sun crosses Saturn, we could expect some natural dangers. This is a month to be cautious. I shall give some more details when I get back to Delhi.

Right now I am at Satya Sai Baba's ashram and praying to the divine lord to help all, heal all.

God bless.
