January 27th 2012

Hello friends,

Wish you all a very happy new year.

2012 is here and there is a lot of speculation around in the world. I shall briefly describe the planetary positions for 2012, and the effects on the United States of America, and then also talk a little bit about the end of world on December 21st 2012, and the future thereafter.

Predictions for 2012 – First, I will say only two words. New Year - No fear.

As of January 1st 2012, at sunrise, the planets were as follows: This is as per Vedic Astrology.

Sun was in Sagittarius, Moon in Pisces, Mars in Leo, Rahu in Scorpio, Jupiter in Aries, Saturn in Libra, Mercury in Scorpio, Venus in Capricorn, and Ketu in Taurus.

The horoscope of America, on basis of the date, time and year of declaration of independence is as: Sagittarius rising, Ketu in the 2nd house in Capricorn, Moon in the 3rd house in Aquarius, Sun, Venus, Jupiter and Mars in the 7th house in Gemini, Mercury in the 8th house in Cancer along with Rahu, and Saturn in the 10th house in Virgo.

Three years ago, I had predicted and written about this economic crisis on America. On June 2008 I had also predicted that Barack Obama would be the next president of America. It is important to understand that Obama or anyone was not responsible for this crisis or unemployment in the country. It's just that the United States of America had to go through this crisis. America had this Saturn transit since about 3 years ago which just got over on November 15th 2011. Now the most difficult days are over for this country. This is going to be a Good year and America will see much better days from now onwards. So cheer up Americans!

Small proof of my predictions are:

In December 2011 the unemployment rate was the lowest since the last three years.

This year, the Thanksgiving weekend retail sales climbed 16 percent to $52.4 billion as 226 million shoppers hit stores and the Web. Does this not show that more people have got jobs and businesses have done better? So, things are not so bad my friends. Have hope and faith.

In my next newsletter, I will discuss the horoscopes of the presidential candidates for 2012 and give you all an insight of what and who to expect.

The Mayan calendar predicts the end of the world on 21st Dec 2012. But I say that there is nothing to worry about, and that the world will not come to an end. In fact, the new era, the new Age will begin in the year 2020. Why the Mayan calendar was blank after the date December 21st 2012, I don't know. Maybe the guy who was writing it died in between. Or maybe they ran out of ink! Or Maybe God has other plans for us humans. There's lot more work to be done for humanity and lots of Karma and destiny to fulfill! And guess what? A divine incarnation is about to be born to herald the new age of mankind. Look inward into your conscience, and upward towards God. And the world will be saved!

Now let's see how the planets are positioned on December 21st 2012 at Sunrise. The sign Scorpio would be rising at EST 6 am With Venus, Mercury and Rahu in it. Sun would be in the 2nd house in Sagittarius, Mars would be in the 3rd house in Capricorn, Moon would be in the 5th house in Pisces, Jupiter and Ketu would be in the 7th house in Taurus, and Saturn would be in the 12th house in Libra.

Now I don't see why the Sun would not rise on that day. At the most, it could be cloudy and cold. In fact many of you would be traveling on that Friday, to have a family gathering for Christmas!

Between now and 2020 will be a period of transformations, understanding and wisdom. There will also be a tussle between the east and the west, and there could be many disturbances in India, Pakistan, and the surrounding countries. But the main danger of aggression will be from China. I had mentioned in my previous newsletters that only when America joins hands with India could it become strong and decisively overcome terrorism in the world. The economy of America would also become much more stable and strong.

There are 12 Zodiac Signs, 9 Planets and 27 Constellations. Every person would have some influence of the permutation and combination of all of these. The planetary influences on every person would depend on the birth horoscope, which is calculated on basis of the date, time, year, and place of birth. For those, who do not have the time of birth, the readings are done from the Moon sign, as I did for the previous presidents and presidential candidates.

Our present is based on our past and previous life Karmas, and the future depends on our present Karmas. The question is what is Karma? When we refer to Karma, it relates to actions conducted in our life, based on intent, thoughts and feelings. The most important thing is discrimination, which is the power that helps us choose and distinguish between the right and the wrong, the good and the bad. Therefore Karma should be done according to Dharma, which is righteousness. Only then, would one be able to exercise discrimination, right action, right thoughts and feelings.

God wants us to live in peace, harmony and love. When mankind transforms to a refined existence where there is compassion, love, truth, righteousness, non-violence and peace, then man will see the golden age of humanity. Mind is the cause of all problems of man. We must practice to have command over the mind. The human mind is fickle like a monkey. The earthly yearnings are desires that bring down our spirituality. Therefore the Earthly Yearnings must be isolated from the mind. Let's see what happens then: MONKEY minus EY becomes MONK, which means a saint. MONK – EY

Thus a monkey mind can become a Monk! Also, the human mind is filled with passion which in turn can become the cause of so many sins. Passion is the desire of the mind and senses. Therefore, this passion has to be transformed into something positive. Without control and command over the mind and senses this is not possible. It is only when we let our consciousness prevail over the mind that we can control the desire of the mind. Thus COM stands for Consciousness Of Man. Now, put COM before PASSION and it becomes COMPASSION. Thus, a desire that could be evil can be transformed into selfless love. THIS, is spiritualism. This is the simplest explanation, and the path from man to God. Then it can be said to be "Dharma in Karma". The only way is the path of transformation. Each one of us has a role to play in this plan of God for the new age, the golden age, the age of truth.

May God bless humanity.
