Dear Friends,

Today is July 6th, and a lot has already happened around the world. I would like to draw your attention to my previous newsletters, where I had predicted about some danger to General Pervez Musharaf of Pakistan. I had also mentioned about the downfall of President George W Bush and that he would be most unpopular. In the last newsletter I had written that there would be great floods, landslides or earthquakes, and that there would be great destruction due to fury of nature in India and neighbouring countries. And remember the terrorist attack?

Well, some of them are already happening. Although I foresee some greater calamity later, in August/September. Just to keep you updated about what's happened so far, here's the latest news:

There have been major floods in India, where over a million people have been left stranded and homeless. Huge floods have literally sunk the state of Gujarat, and the state of west Bengal. Boats are being used to transport the people to safer places. Flood waters have caused total destruction. The city of Calcutta is paralyzed and is still reeling under the floods. The state of Gujarat is also very badly affected by the floods, and thousands of people have nowhere to go. Hundreds of people have been drowned and many missing.

You all must have heard about the Glasgow bombings by the terrorists last week. They are not going to stop here. I fear that some great conspiracy is being planned and may be executed in the next couple of months. What we have seen and heard so far is not all of it. Much more may be in store yet.

Today morning, the news headlines said that President Pervez Musharaf of Pakistan was flying to some place and 2 anti aircraft guns and 2 missiles were fired at the aircraft to kill him. Luckily, he survived. Great danger to him persists until July 15th. But like I said earlier, he and his friend Bush are both on their way out. Their rule and power is finished.

India may expect some secret conspiracy from terrorists and there may be a great calamity in the next couple of months. India will be susceptible to riots, blasts, floods, earthquakes and great instability. The enemy is within the land. There are 5 conspirators planning something within. Targets could be the west side of India, Maharastra-Mumbai? There may also be someone from an eastern Muslim country. Bangladesh? I feel the financial buildings may be the target.

India is the fastest growing economy in the world today, and the enemies of mankind will try to de-stabilize the country.

Lets all pray to God, to save the world from such calamities, and transform the evil into Good.
