Dear friends

With reference to my earlier newsletters and predictions, this is an update on all that.

I had mentioned that Oil prices will go haywire. Well, it touched over $100 per barrel.

Earlier, I had mentioned that the planetary combinations could create mass destruction, and a lot of floods, and natural calamities could happen. Bangladesh has had the worst flood situation ever. Over 5000 people are dead, millions left homeless, and many parts of land are dismembered. Winds over 150 m/per hr ripped through the country and tidal waves over 16 feet flooded the country. This is indeed a huge calamity.

India has been facing a lot of problems within the government, with some parties withdrawing support, and there was a danger of the government falling. Also, in a state in the eastern state, Maoists have been very active and the army had to be called in for enforcing law and order. There has been a lot of violent situations.

Our neighbor Pakistan is also having its own share of problems, with emergency being declared in the country. There was a movement to overthrow the president, and there was lot of violence and unrest in the country.

In California, there was a huge fire that you all must have heard about. Thus these planets cause certain situations in the world atmosphere and in the lives of people, and most of the time, we are helpless. This then brings us to think that there must be a cosmic law being applicable, and that's how some of the events are foreseen. Well, the enlightened saints wrote down many thousands of years ago, about this age, called the Kaliyuga, the iron age, the age when materialism will be at its peak, and righteousness will be missing in people.

These kinds of planetary combinations spell major changes to come for mankind, and soon hereafter, the change of times set in, when man will once again seek spiritual answers

Let us all pray to God, to usher us into the age of Dharma, Peace, and love. There are some very good times ahead for us in the near future. And I believe, that the divine hand will be upon those who have faith in Him, and they will see the coming of the Golden age.

God bless
