Dear Friends,

This month, the Sun is in Cancer, Mercury moves into Cancer on July 24th, Venus is already in Cancer since July 8th, Mars is in Leo with Saturn, Jupiter in Sagittarius, and Rahu in Capricorn, Ketu in Cancer.

This month from mid July to mid August is going to be an eventful one for many people. There will be travels, changes in jobs and generally things moving around.

As per America's chart, this is going to be a month of weather related abnormalities. There could be sea storms, land storms, accidents, fires and other such mishaps. This is also going to be a month of financial challenges for many people, for financial institutions, Banks and investors. Real estate could plunge further.

Right up to the end of December, all the planets are in the orb of Ketu and Rahu, and the situation will generally be Topsy turvy. On December 10th, Jupiter moves into Capricorn!
 This will herald some good changes for many people, including Barrack Obama. Some people will start making a mark in the society and surge fast ahead of times.

The hardest factor that is hitting the world today is recession and economic instability. But let me assure you that this is only a passing phase. America will come back to its old glory towards the end of 2009. There will be a great transformation, and there will be prosperity, harmony, trades, and general well being all around.

There is much talk and buzz going around, that the world will end on December 21st 2012, as per the Mayan calendar!. But it is a gross mis-interpretation. As per the Hindu scriptures, the time from 2009 will mark the end of the Kaliyuga, the dark age and the golden age will begin thereafter. The Sun will surely rise the next day, and the stars will shine too! But humanity will be engulfed in NEW LIGHT! A wave of some very positive energy will shine upon the world and mankind will start transforming into a higher being. Thereafter, man's discriminative capacity shall multiply many folds, and his higher intellect will take over mind and senses. Man will once again, connect to his Consciousness, and the planet will flourish in the new awareness of divine Consciousness and bliss.

Its very important for one and all, to prepare for the much awaited time! Each one of us will play a part in this new age, in some form or the other. Every soul will realize its divine potential, and there will be a new world order. So cheer up guys, and lets look forward to this golden age, which will transcend upon all soon, and humanity shall live in peace and bliss!

God bless
