MICHAEL JACKSON – THE MAN, THE LEGEND. AN ASTROLOGICAL PROFILE OF THE ENIGMA – BY DR. RAKESH KUMAR

Michael Jackson was born on August 29th 1958 in Gary, Indiana. The sign Leo was rising at sunrise, with mercury. Jupiter and Rahu were in Libra, in the 3rd house, Saturn in Scorpio in the 4th house, Moon in Aquarius in the 7th, Mars and Ketu were in the 9th house in Aries, and Venus was in Cancer in the 12th house.

Sun in Leo, the Kingly sign, rising with the time of sunrise indicated that he would be a very famous person, and so a star was born. It was a full Moon, which indicates that he would be a public person, and who would have a great concern for humanity, particularly children. His major period of Jupiter began when he was 6 years old. From his moon sign, Jupiter becomes the ruler of his 2nd house, which represents speech, (singing) and house of wealth. Since Jupiter was in Libra, ruled by Venus, he became expert in music and dance. There is a very strong Mars opposite Jupiter, forming a very powerful combination, which gave him strength of body and voice. He would also have been spiritual deep inside, and would have contemplated practicing yoga and such spiritual practices.

Saturn in his 4th house indicated that deep inside, he was a sad man and depressed. He had very deep insights and wanted to do a lot for humanity. Venus in Cancer was in a weak sign, and therefore he always lacked love. Mars and Ketu in the 9th house shows that his father was very severe on him and almost a dictator. His mother too, was not so much of a mother. His brothers and sisters were jealous of him, and friends were false and deceptive. Poor chap, everyone who was connected with him, was ripping him off, and he being the soul that he was, never retaliated. He would have been mostly defensive, and probably knew that everyone around him was greedy and taking advantage of him, but silently faced everything.

He indeed a good soul and was a great humanitarian. But Rahu and Ketu are planets that distort the planets and the signs they occupy. So he had some misplaced beliefs, which could be to do with religion, faith, occult or medical. We know that he went through many surgeries for his looks and wanted to live beyond normal life. Rahu also gave him some unconventional or out of natural ideas. Out of natural, NOT unnatural. But most of it was due to people who he associated with. He had some real bad friends and bad advisors. No one was true to him. His very own blood, was his enemy. In the sense that they cheated him and deceived him. All Michael the man wanted was to have some good, loving and caring people around him. That's why he associated with children because children are so pure and unselfish.

Even for being a godfather to them, one of those accused him of molestation. Michael Jackson's chart has no planetary situations that may suggest that he might be a sexual pervert, or a child molester. Sadly, all that bad publicity was also a conspiracy to defame him and get money out of him. There were many out there, who were very jealous of him. Even his very own, used him and deserted him. He was very sad within his heart. It's sad that people of the world first curse and defame a person, and then glorify them after their death. The other uncanny part is that such great people never lived to long. History is the witness of many such great people. To name a few, Elvis Presley, Bruce Lee, Princess Diana, Gandhi, John Kennedy, and many others.

June 25th, 2009. Michael was in the major period of Mercury and just started the sub period of Rahu. Saturn was transiting over the birth positions of his Sun and Mercury, and 7th from his moon sign. This was a very stressful transit and his nervous system was very weak, lungs under pressure and heart pumping with great effort. On June 25th, Mars and Venus were within 1 degree of conjunction in Aries. Moon was in Cancer with Rahu and Ketu. I feel that since June 23rd, around midnight, Michael would have started having some breathing problems, and feeling very restless. He may not have been able to sleep, but would have been almost in a semi conscious state. Then the drugs given by the doctor made his situation more unstable. He did not get enough oxygen, and his central nervous system started failing, and he lost his speech. The sub period of Rahu started on June 25th morning at about 11 am and that's when suddenly and unexpectedly, Michael's lungs would have collapsed and he stopped breathing.

Thus ended the saga of a great artist, the king of entertainment, who rose like the Sun, shone bright during his life, and after the sunset, his reflection is seen in the Moon. So the sun has set, but his music, his impressions, his work lives on. Today, the whole world remembers him, and connects to him, but its so sad that that man, went away, sad and lonely. Maybe, having been betrayed by people of earth, Michael went to seek true love from God. The center verse of the bible says "It is better to have faith in God, than trust man" I wish Michael would have followed that. He would have been alive today, and a happier man. But I suppose God must be bored up there and so He summoned Michael to entertain the celestial beings for a change!

May God bless Michael's soul, and rest him in peace.
