Dear Friends,

Happy New Year to all of you! I pray that the new year brings you all peace, happiness and prosperity. Many people look forward to new beginnings, new opportunities and new hope. At the beginning of the new year.

But the planets don't just keep changing on the 1st of January every year. They move at their own pace, have their own aspects and impacts and affect every individual and the countries around the world. So let me start by describing the position of the planet.

Today, on January 1st, 2026, at sunrise, the planets were as follows: Sagittarius rising with Mars, Sun, Venus and Mercury in it. Rahu in the 3rd house in Aquarius, Saturn in the 4th house in Pisces, Moon in the 6th house in Taurus, Jupiter in the 7th house in Gemini, and Ketu in the 9th house in Leo. In transit Saturn and Ketu have got a negative impact on Mars, Sun, Venus and Mercury. Apart from that, Mars and Sun form a very volatile combination while Jupiter and Mercury have exchanged their houses. These kinds of planetary combinations can be bad for wars, enmities, destruction, fire, earthquakes, floods and other natural calamities.

Also, from the moon sign, all these volatile planets are placed in the 8th house, which symbolizes death/destruction/end. There can also be some airlines, vehicular accidents, fires and explosions in some places.

So, I'm afraid, the first quarter of the year doesn't look very positive for the world situations in general. Trust will be betrayed, backstabbing and conspiracy between people and countries will also happen. There is going to be a great surge of negative energy around the world.

In fact, around 3rd week of February all the planets will be in a combination called Kala Sarpa Yog which is a planetary alignment where all the planets come on one side of the horoscope between Rahu and Ketu which are 180 degrees from each other, and the other half of the horoscope is empty. In fact, on February 23rd we will have Mercury Venus Rahu Sun and Mars all clustered together in the sign of Aquarius, and Saturn Moon and Jupiter in between with Ketu opposite in the sign of Leo. These kinds of planetary combinations can be very dangerous, the effect of which I already mentioned earlier.

Now, let's move on to countries.

America:

As for America, things will continue to be good until June this year. There will be growth of power, new aircrafts and war systems will be put together. The financial condition is going to be good. America is in the major period of Rahu and the government needs to clear their plans and strategies which I feel are not in the right direction. There may be some problem from some Islamic country, especially so after June this year.

Donald Trump's planets don't look very positive until middle of the year. In fact, his ego will take a hit, his position and power will get a shakeup, and he will be deceived by an alliance with an Islamic country (Pakistan?). Again, misjudged decisions due to Rahu. However, I feel after June he will get some stability, and he will sign some good pacts/deals with at least 2 foreign countries from which America will benefit.

Israel:

This country is in the major period of Mars until June/July 2026, and until then they will probably going to be scrabbling with war. But as per the planets, it shows the country will face some hardships, could be financial, could be challenges to the leadership, and a spiritual decline. This is likely going to go on until June 2027.

Benjamin Netanyahu's chart also indicates challenging times for him. I mentioned earlier, and saying this again, that he may go through some mental/head/brain related problems. His Jupiter is in debilitation indicates lack of spiritual values.

Within the next year or so there will be a lot of planetary changes happening for the world and people with bad karma are going to go on the decline.

Russia:

As per Russia's chart, it indicates there is likely going to be some financial dearth/economic hardships for the next 18 months or so. However, from the beginning of June this year Russia will become very strong, the military might will become maximum and they are likely going to overcome their adversaries within a year maximum. From June 2027 up to June 2028 Russia will become strong in every way.

As per Putin's chart, it does indicate he will continue to be in a war mode for the next 1 ½ years. His horoscope is pretty strong, and it does not look like anyone is going to topple him.

Ukraine:

As per Ukraine's chart, it indicates that after June they are likely to get a big support from at least 3 nuclear countries to boost up the military power for the war against Russia. But its war, war, war.

As per Zelensky's chart it also indicates a time of war and massive destruction for his own country. And his chart also typically shows the same prognosis as of Ukraine. He and Donald Trump can never be friends. While Zelensky was looking for his own benefit in his meetings with Trump, Donald Trump was only trying to help and heal and defuse the war situation. Trump had no ulterior motives to help Zelensky.

China:

As per China's chart, it indicates the country is going through some economic and financial challenges. But they are likely to stabilize after June this year. And I feel they are probably going to tie up with some good trade deals with India.

Jin Ping's chart shows he is pretty strong as of now but he should watch out for his health pertaining to blood pressure/cardiovascular problems in the coming times.

India:

Lastly India. I had mentioned this earlier and am saying this again. India is growing by leaps and bounds and soon is going to be one of the leaders of the world. India just began the major period of Mars in September 2025. And India is going to grow stronger and stronger by way of military, technology, and more and more countries are going to join hands with India for growth and prosperity and peace. From June this year, within the next one year, India is going to be the focus of the world. All countries are going to look up to India admirably and would want to be friends with India.

Narendra Modi. Prime minister Narendra Modi's chart is already strong and in planetary transits from June onwards his figure and stature is going to become huge. Ironically, he is also in the major period of Mars which is another factor that indicates his power. As per his chart he is more like a yogi who has no greed or attachments towards anything in life. His whole objective is to work and do things for his country. And everyone has seen in the past 10 years, the country India from being incognito is now recognized as the top 5 countries of the world. I personally know that Prime minister Narendra Modi has been personally blessed by Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba and Baba had declared many years ago that Narendra Modi is going to shape the destiny of India ("Bharat bhagya vidhata").

However, within the next year and a half, he may have to face some adversary/ conspiracy/ backstabbing from his own country particularly from the eastern region (Kolkata? Mamta Banerjee?). Going by the birth information of Mamta Banerjee as available in the media (January 5th, 1955, in Kolkata, time of birth unknown), her chart indicates that this is going to be the last tenure for her. She is in the major period of Saturn until August this year and it seems that this transit of Saturn is likely to bring her down from her position and impact her health seriously.

Lastly, let's look at the leader of opposition Rahul Gandhi (I don't know why leader of opposition is called LOP – LOO ☺). Rahul Gandhi's horoscope indicates he will not have a father in his life and his father will have a treacherous death. Also, he is not likely to marry in this lifetime, and if he does he will be separated from his spouse. He will not live with her. His mother and sister are strong supporting factors in his life.

He is in the major period of Rahu which will go on till 2037. In my opinion, he will never become the Prime Minister of India. He has some property and money overseas. After June 2027 all his political ambitions will be gone. There are many video clips of his where he is seen goofing up his words and thoughts, which shows he is totally disoriented about everything. In fact, there is a whole cartoon network made on Rahul Gandhi's talks which are really funny and idiotic. So, no thank you, Rahul!

Beyond 2026 – Important Divine Plan:

April 5th, 2027, is going to be a very bad day for humanity, for the world, that can affect masses of people. Evil will be at its maximum and planet Earth could be exposed to great danger. This can happen due to natural calamities, wars/nuclear wars, or even dirty wars like biological warfare etc. The planets on that day can also cause huge tsunamis which again may cause mass destruction. These effects are likely to last for quite a few days.

Then on July 4th, 2027, a Divine Manifestation will take place on Earth to save the Earth and Mankind from destruction. He will be seen at different parts of the world, in different times, and to give messages to the leaders of the world and to Mankind. And thus, He will start His mission of transformation of humanity and to uplift the life and consciousness of Man. Many divine souls and angels will come along with Him to heal the world of the great evil that has engulfed the entire globe.

And then ten months later that Divine Manifestation of God will appear as a 10-year-old boy and all evil will be vanquished on Earth. And then as if by a wave a God's hand there is going to be a great transformation of consciousness of Man and then Truth Righteousness Peace and Love will prevail in Humanity!

This is the time when the New Age begins. While even then countries may be many, but the Kingdom will be one, the Kingdom of God! Races may be many, but they will all become one as the Race of Humanity! All religions may unfold as they merge into the Religion of Love, Peace, Harmony, Happiness!

And then God would have Re-Made the world as He always wanted it to be! Amen!

Om Shanti! God Bless you all!

May you all live in Peace, Harmony, Love.

And in the Brotherhood of Man and Fatherhood of God!
